Frequently Asked Questions About Direct Payment/Electronic Giving

1. What is Direct Payment/Electronic Giving? Electronic giving is a direct debit program whereby your contribution is debited automatically from your checking or savings account.
2. What are the advantages of Electronic Giving? It makes it easy to fulfill stewardship commitments, even when you cannot attend Mass. You never have to bring cash or checks to Mass. Giving electronically also helps Gesu save money and improve its budget.
3. What if I change bank accounts? Notify Gesu and we will give you a new authorization form to complete. Or, you can print an authorization from Gesu's website: www.gesuparish.org.
4. How can Gesu automatically deduct contributions from my account? Once you complete and sign an authorization form and return it to us, the contribution amount you specify will automatically be transferred from your bank account to Gesu's bank account.
5. When will my contribution be deducted from my account? Your electronic contribution will be debited on the date you specify on the authorization form.
6. Can I change the amount of my gift? What if I want to stop giving in this way? You can change the amount you want to give or cancel at any time by completing a new authorization form. We need to have the authorization form in our office three business days before the date of the change.
7. Is there a risk in making electronic contributions? No. An electronic contribution is safer than writing a check; it can't be lost, stolen, or destroyed in the mail. Plus, electronic contributions have an extremely high accuracy rate.
8. How do I keep a record of the amount I have contributed? Since your contribution is made at a pre-established time, you simply record it in your check register on the appropriate date. Electronic contributions are also recorded for you on your bank statement.
9. Without a canceled check, how can I prove I made my contribution? Your bank statement gives you an itemized list of electronic transactions. It is your proof of contributing.
10. How often would I give? That's your choice. You can give weekly, bi-monthly (twice a month) or monthly.
11. How do I sign up for electronic giving? Complete and sign the authorization form and return it to Gesu along with a voided check or savings deposit slip.
